

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET

Join our team as Deputy Director of the Office of Management and Budget!

The City of Fort Lauderdale is seeking applicants for Deputy Director of Management and Budget. This is highly responsible managerial and administrative work of unusual difficulty assisting the Department Director in directing, appraising, analyzing, and coordinating all operations of the department, and in specifically supervising the operations and activities of the Research and Budget Division.

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS

The ideal candidate for this position will have graduated from an accredited college or university with a Bachelor's degree in accounting, finance, economics, public or business administration or a closely related field. A Master's degree in an appropriate field is preferred.

Have at least five (5) years progressively responsible work experience in accounting, budgeting, auditing or revenue administration in a medium to large governmental operation, at least two (2) years of which must have involved managerial responsibilities.

SALARY AND BENEFITS

The salary range for this position is $72,009 to $109,512 annually plus liberal fringe benefits with no state or local income tax (pending City Commission approval). Starting salary is negotiable depending on qualifications. The City of Fort Lauderdale offers a superior fringe benefits package, which includes defined benefit pension or deferred compensation, 25 vacation days, 9 paid holidays annually, and a vehicle allowance of $4,680 per year.

Mail resume for consideration to Averill Dorsett, Director of Human Resources, City of Fort Lauderdale, 100 N. Andrews Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301. EOE

Florida Public Records Law prohibits us from assuring confidentiality of applications.
